

Ian Gilbert

Graphic Designer
www.iang.design
ian@iang.design
520.409.4615

Ian G. Design

Objective

To collaborate side by side using my skills with client and company to ensure the best possible outcomes for success.

Professional Qualities

- Demonstrates ability to work well in team and solo environments.
- Outgoing and positive personality.
- Proven ability to learn quickly and exercise knowledge in desired time frames.
- Analytical and problem solving abilities.

The Art Center Design College, August 2007
Bachelor of Arts, Graphic Design

AIGA (American Institute of Graphic Arts)
Member: January 2005 – January 2014

Education & Organizations

Experience

CARF International, Graphics and Communications Specialist
September, 2009 – current

Design, development, and production of various marketing materials and publications.

The Art Center Design College Bookstore, Assistant Manager

May 2005 – December 2008

Customer service, ordered and received merchandise stock for the store, assist students and outside customers. Design and production work for the college and bookstore.

Adobe Creative Cloud and Microsoft Office: Adobe Acrobat, Dreamweaver, Framemaker, InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop, Premiere Pro, After Effects, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, Quark Xpress, and Corel Draw website design, development, and maintenance, Bootstrap, HTML, CSS, PHP, and Wordpress

Proficient in PC and Mac OS

Computer Skills

Contract & Freelance Work

- Epic Industries (2012 – current) graphic and website design and maintenance
- SBBL Architecture + Planning (2013 – current) website design and maintenance
- Sayler-Brown Architecture (2015 – current) website design and maintenance

The above listed is ongoing contract and freelance work, various other design projects, and samples are available upon request.